I told you, mother
to marry me to someone,
to marry me to someone,
so that I would become a housewife.

But on no account
marry me to an old man,
marry me to an old man,
because you'll regret it.

Because an old man
is always examining everything,
is always examining everything,
and has nothing but words.
